Colorado Springs, Colo. - CoSport, the exclusive authorized ticket agent and Official Sponsor of the U. S. Olympic Committee (USOC), announced today the results of the Phase 2 tickets sales to the U.S. general public that commenced on May 14.

The U.S. public's interest in attending the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Winter Games remains very high. During the first 75 minutes of sales, 31,108 tickets were purchased and a total of 34,017 tickets have been sold since the launch of the Phase 2 sales. Nearly half of the tickets sold during this phase of ticketing were purchased by citizens in the Pacific Northwest region of the United States.

Tickets for the 2010 Olympic Winter Games in Vancouver are still available for sale on CoSport's website. All remaining tickets are being sold on a first-come, first-serve basis. The remaining tickets for sale include Opening and Closing Ceremonies, as well as men and women's USA hockey games and figure skating.

"We are very pleased with the success of the Phase 2 sales launch," commented Mr. Jean-Paul Modde, president of CoSport, "For people with an interest in attending the Vancouver Games we still have some great options available for purchase; however, with the pace of sales that inventory might not remain available for much longer so we encourage people to make their plans now."
